THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND JAPANESE TROOPS OPERATING IN YANGTZE VALLEY

600 Aeroplanes Being Used In Central China

Chungking, December 2.

JAPANESE FORCES AT PRESENT operating in the Yangtze Valley total approximately 15 divisions or 300,000 men while Japanese aircraft in China total over 1,200 aeroplanes according to information reaching a foreign military expert here.

He estimates that the "distribution of Japanese troops in the Yangtze Valley" as follows:

Six divisions on the south bank of the Yangtze River distributed from Tehan on the Kukiang-Nanchang Railway to Yochow, on the east bank of Tungting Lake; eight divisions on the north bank of the Yangtze River distributed from Anking, capital of Anhwei province to Yingchen, northwest of Hankow, also Sinyang on the Peiping-Hankow Railway, north of Hankow.

One division is distributed in the Nanking and Wuhu area.

Up till last January it is estimated the Japanese employed 800 aeroplanes in the China operations but this number is said to be increased at present to over 1,200 aeroplanes, at least 600 of which are being used in Central China; the foreign military expert states.

Aviation circles attach particular interest to the performance of the American Seversky two-seater pursuits which the Japanese used recently in raiding Hengyang, important Chinese base in south Hunan province.

Hitherto, due to the distance, Japanese bombers have been raiding interior cities without the escort of pursuits. As the Seversky two-seater pursuits are of the half pursuit and half bomber type of aircraft the Japanese recently sent Seversky pursuits to accompany the bombers in raiding Hengyang.

The results of future aerial combats between the Chinese single-seat pursuits and the Japanese two-seater pursuits will be watched with the keenest interest.

NO COMMUNICATION LINES

Chungking, Dec. 2.

Military observers believe that one of the main reasons for the alleged slowing down of the Japanese offensive to the south of Yochow, on the Canton-Hankow Railway, about 100 miles south of Hankow and Tungchen, on the Hupeh-Hunan highway, is the lack of communication lines.

It is understood that the Japanese are now rushing the construction of a new military road connecting Yochow with Tungchen, via Tsolin and Kuocheng-shih.

JAPANESE DRIVE TO SHENSI

Will Be Held Up For Some Time

Peiping, Dec. 2.

The Japanese drive to Shensi is likely to be held up for some time. The Japanese admit that 10,000 Chinese troops from three Central Government divisions have filtered into the southwestern corner of Shensi, across the Hoangho, where they are causing the Japanese garrisons much difficulty and anxiety.

Chinese troops are not operating in large forces while the irregulars in North Honan continue to be active. The Japanese are also facing a large concentration of Chinese forces to the south of the Hoangho.

Asked how many, the Japanese spokesman replied, "Probably 250,000."—Reuter.

JAPANESE FORCED BACK TOWARDS FATSHAN

North Kwangtung Advances Brought To Standstill

(SPECIAL TO THE HONGKONG DAILY PRESS)

From reliable reports from the West River area in Kwangtung it would appear that the furthest point reached by Japanese troops to the west was the banks of the North River where it joins the West River at Samshui. The Japanese apparently were prevented from crossing the river and are reported to have been forced back towards Fatshan, which is half way between Canton and Samshui.

Japanese advances in North Kwangtung were brought to a standstill on a line south of Tsungfa, beyond which only isolated units seem to have penetrated in the general direction of Fatkongting. North of the latter city road communication still remains open, northward as well as to east and west. The eastern, or right flank, of the Japanese army operating out of Canton is on the line northward from Tsungfa, a city on the river running north of Shektan on the Canton-Kowloon Railway.

In addition to having stopped the Japanese advance the latest reports indicate that Chinese regular troops are engaged in local counter-attacks aimed at pushing back the Japanese from the positions which they have occupied. Guerrillas are operating on the Canton-Hankow Railway and the highways along which the Japanese have their communications.

Some success is attending the Chinese counter-attacks south of Tsungfa and north of Tsungling. Japanese reinforcements have been sent to the sectors threatened.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

(From Our Own Correspondent) Chungshan, Dec. 2.

Japanese troops are coming to Kwangtung from Formosa and Shanghai to launch an attack on Shihling on the West River before the termination of hostilities in China as a prelude to secure a foothold in Kwangtung.

WHO IS TO PAY FOR BURNING OF SYNAGOGUES?

Question Becomes International

Berlin, Dec. 2.

The question of who is to pay for the burning of synagogues and other damage in the recent anti-Jewish excesses has become international through the presentation of claims by German insurance companies to British, American and other foreign companies as reinsurers underwriters.

The estimates of German brokers of the losses caused by demonstrators vary between 500,000,000 and 1,000,000,000 marks (about $33,000,000).

Nearly all the German insurance companies are reinsured abroad and consequently presented their claims abroad on the ground of "civil commotion."

Some foreign companies are expected to decline payment because the civil commotion clause was struck out in the contracts by the Germans themselves who argued that civil commotion was impossible in an authoritarian state.

Other foreign companies, whose contracts include the clause, have replied that they were prepared to prove that the anti-Jewish outbreaks were organized with the Government's connivance and therefore represented an act of sovereignty not covered by the reinsurance contract.

One foreign underwriter, believed to be British, who reinsured again with a German underwriter is stated to be strongly anti-semitic and is now called on to pay for Jewish damage.—Reuter.

Destined to join the Yangtze Gunboat Flotilla, H.M.S. Scorpion has been commissioned for her trials and will shortly leave for Shanghai.

SECOND RELIEF SHIP FOR CANTON

Being the second merchant vessel to sail from Hongkong to Canton since the Japanese occupation of the Kwangtung capital, the s.s. Fatshan will leave to-day with a full cargo of relief stores for refugees.

It is not known whether she will carry any passengers. The owners of the vessel, the China Navigation Company, Ltd., stated last night that nothing had been decided in the matter.

The first relief ship, the s.s. Wuchang, left for Canton on November 23.

Privy Council Judgment

CUSTOMS CRUISER MURDER CASE

APPEAL DISMISSED

London, Dec. 2.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in a reserved judgment delivered to-day dismissed the appeal of the Chinese cabin boy, Chung Chi-cheung, against his conviction and sentence to death in Hongkong last year for the murder of Captain Douglas Lorne Campbell on board a Chinese Customs cruiser in the territorial waters of Hongkong.

The point for the five judges to decide was whether the territorial immunity of the cruiser as an armed vessel of a visiting State extended to all members of the crew.

Delivering the Committee's judgment, Lord Atkin recalled that both the cabin boy and the captain were British nationals.

On the question of the jurisdiction of the Hongkong Courts, Lord Atkin said that so far as Britain was concerned international law had validity save that insofar its principles were accepted and adopted by our own domestic law.

EXTRATERRITORIALITY

The doctrine of extraterritoriality regarded a public ship "as a floating portion of the flag of her State."

Lord Atkin continued, however, that the doctrine of extraterritoriality as expressed by it was fiction and legal fictions have a tendency to pass beyond the appointed bounds and harden into dangerous facts.

It further appeared to their Lordships as plain as possible that the Chinese Government had consented to the British Court exercising jurisdiction.—Reuter.

ANOTHER POST FOR MR. CHEN CHIEH

Shanghai, Dec. 2.

Mr. Chen Chieh, Chinese Ambassador to Germany, will be appointed to another post, according to Chinese reports, which state that the decision has been made by the Executive Yuan.

The Embassy in Berlin will be directed by the Charge d'Affaires. Chinese feeling has been aroused by the delay and the subsequent postponement since the day of the reception of the Ambassador by Chancellor Hitler, and the Chinese press has demanded that the envoy be recalled.—Transocean and Special.

STARTLING DISCLOSURE AT FIRE INQUIRY

Thirty People On Single Floor In Kowloon Flat

The startling revelation that there were as many as 30 people being lodged on the second floor of No. 227, Shanghai Street on November 16, when fire broke out shortly after midnight, and that the only one available exit by the back stairs was cut off by the flames was made at the Kowloon Court yesterday by Lo So, 42-year-old unemployed restaurant cook, when he gave evidence at the inquiry commenced before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen, sitting as Coroner, assisted by Messrs. J. Hoare (Foreman), Lam Tit-hong and G. Guterres.

Lo lost his wife and four children in the fire that took a toll of 12 lives.

Lo told of his coming home to No. 227, Shanghai Street, where he and his family rented bed-space in a room accommodating 30 people. A man, named Li, who lived on the same floor, came home shortly after him.

It was hardly midnight when he heard police whistles and shouts of "Fire!"

Opening the "trap-door" to the stairs leading down, he saw the floor beneath already ablaze.

Arousing the other occupants of the floor and calling to them to follow him, he proceeded to climb out the window and down by the fire-escape to the scavenging lane below.

Panic ensued, however, and many of the others jumped down two floors to the lane below.

Finding his 12-year-old son among these who had jumped down and had been injured he took him to the Yau-mat Police Station and later to the Kowloon Hospital. He did not know then what had happened to his wife and other children, but on the following day he was taken to the Kowloon Public Mortuary where he identified the bodies of his wife and of four of his children.

Witnesses heard yesterday were Mr. J. W. Woollard, Fire Brigade Station Officer, a police photographer and a medical officer of the Kowloon Public Mortuary. Other witnesses will be heard on Monday afternoon.

WHERE ARE THE JAPANESE?

Battle Expected At Yim Tin

FROM A STAFF REPORTER

Shatashok, Dec. 2.

Where are the Japanese? That is the question that everybody seems to be asking for there is no sign whatever of the men from Japan.

Some reports have it that they all have retired to Yim Tin where a major battle is expected momentarily, while other messages are to the effect that they are falling back on to Canton.

The fact remains, however, that there has not been any activity here for the past few days. Is it the calm before the storm? That is not likely, according to observers.

The refugee problem, also, has taken a turn for the better. Some of them have actually returned to Chinese territory, confident that the worst is over but the more sceptical ones are remaining behind, preferring to enjoy the safety of British protection rather than risk again coming up against the Japanese, who show no respect or consideration for non-combatants.

We have not seen the Japanese blimp now for a few days and the chances of it being sent up in the next day or so are slender. This morning I saw a dozen or so refugees in conference and on inquiry I found they were planning to return to Canton immediately after its recapture by the Chinese. They spoke about going back early next week.

MARTIAL LAW REIMPOSED

Canton, Dec. 2.

Japanese martial law in the city ended at noon (Japan time) but was reimposed two hours later when for the second time to-day British and Japanese sentries faced one another on the British Bridge. It is understood that hundreds of undesirables were arrested the fate of whom is unknown.—Reuter.

FOR THE FIRST TIME since they occupied the city, the Japanese this morning forbade foreigners from entering it owing to the "rounding up of looters and gangsters."

SPORTS FLASHES

JERRY GOSANO, the La Salle College cricketer, is also quite an expert at softball. This game is catching on very rapidly amongst the school boys in the Colony and there is some talk about a schools league being started.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD the boxing classes in Queen's College have been resumed and that there is some very promising material on view. About ten years ago the annual boxing tournament at Queen's attracted a good deal of interest. Mr. John C. Fletcher was boxing master then with "Kid" Marlett the instructor.

THE SUBSCRIPTION GRIFFINS which arrived in the Colony a few days ago are a very promising looking lot of animals. Many of them already have the appearance of champions and everybody concerned is quite looking forward to the draw.

NEWS HAS BEEN RECEIVED in the Colony that "Battling" Rio, the local boxer, is doing quite well in Singapore and is figuring regularly in their boxing cards. Rio was regarded as a coming man a couple of years ago and it was generally felt that given more experience he would go a long way.

LOCAL TENNIS STARS have already started practicing for the annual tennis championships run under the auspices of the Hongkong Cricket Club about February-March each year. The Chinese Recreation Club courts are used every day by some of the younger blood, a number of whom are expected to make their debut next year.

HONGKONG WAS SHOWN how softball should be played by the American Girls who gave an exhibition here on Wednesday. The crowd was most sporting in their persistence in encroaching on the field but the players took it all in good part.

K.C. "SHOCKS" JUDGE

Comment on a "terrific charge of forgery" was made by counsel in the Chancery Division recently, when the case between Mrs. E. F. E. Borders and a building society was further argued.

Mrs. Borders, the wife of a taxi-driver, who conducts her own case, is contesting an action brought by the Bradford Third Equitable Benefit Building Society, seeking possession of a house at West Wickham, Kent, on the ground that Mrs. Borders was three months in arrears with her repayments of an advance of £283.

She denies this, and counter-claims damages, alleging that she had been misled regarding the condition of the house.

Mr. R. F. Roxburgh, K.C., continuing his argument for the society, invited Mr. Justice Bennett to compare the signatures on the deed of Mrs. Borders and her husband, as guarantor, with other signatures which were not questioned.

"FAST MASTER IN THE ART"
If the deed was a forgery, he said, the forger had copied with great accuracy the signatures of two people, whose handwriting was quite unlike. He must have been a past-master in the art.

Mr. Roxburgh said a second point was that Mr. Feldman, a previous witness, stated that he saw Mrs. Borders sign the deed.

Mr. Justice Bennett: And an alibi was conclusively established. Counsel submitted that Mr. Feldman did not commit himself to a date.

Mr. Justice Bennett: You produce a document with the name of a Mr. White as attesting witness. You admit that he was not an attesting witness, and that he put his name on the document later.

Mr. Roxburgh: That is very common indeed.

Mr. Justice Bennett: You shock me!

Mr. Roxburgh: It is not done with any fraudulent intent, but I don't support the practice.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE
Mr. Justice Bennett: It is a dangerous and very reprehensible practice, but I doubt if it is common.

Counsel declared that Mrs. Bor-

FILM ACTION SETTLED

Ostrer Brothers To Pay Agreed Sum

A $50,000 claim against Messrs. Isidore, Mark and Maurice Ostrer, arising out of the sale of shares affecting the control of the Gaumont-British Picture Corporation was settled for an agreed sum and costs in the King's Bench Division recently. Judgment was entered accordingly.

"I see people making signals in court and I expect we have come to the amber light," observed Lord Justice Goddard, and a few moments later Mr. H. J. Wallington, K.C., for the plaintiffs, Lawrence Howard, theatrical and agent of the Dorchester Hotel, Park-lane, W., announced the settlement.

Mr. Wallington, in his opening speech, had said that the action was brought to recover £50,000 under a contract to pay that sum, or a quantum meruit, in respect of the negotiation of a contract for the sale of a block of shares controlling the Metropolitan and Bradford Trust, which had in turn a controlling interest in the Gaumont-British Picture Corporation.

The contract was discussed in August, 1936, and later. Ultimately on Oct. 8, 1936, a contract in writing was entered into by Mr. John Maxwell, who was the moving spirit in Associated British Picture Corporation. By that contract a proportion of the shares, which had been the subject of Mr. Howard's negotiations, were to be sold and bought.

5,100 VOTING SHARES

The Metropolitan and Bradford Trust had a capital of 10,000 "A" voting shares of £1 each and of those the Ostrer brothers held 5,100. There were also 1,000,000 "B" non-voting shares of £s 3d and of those the Ostrers held 250,000.

The capital of the Gaumont-British Picture Corporation was £2,500,000, in 5,000,000 10s shares, of which the Metropolitan and Bradford Trust held 2,915,000.

Mr. Wallington said that Mr. Isidore Ostrer was the president of the Gaumont-British Picture Corporation, Mr. Mark Ostrer chairman and managing director, and Mr. Maurice Ostrer assistant managing director.

It was at this stage that Sir Patrick Hastings, K.C., for the Ostrer brothers, said his clients had always been willing to pay Mr. Howard a sum of money. The only question had been how much.

ders had made "this terrific charge of forgery" for a purpose that was purely technical. She did not deny that she signed a deed that was in the same terms.

Mr. Justice Bennett: She says she signed a mortgage-deed on a condition that has never been fulfilled. If the deed binds her it is only on some technical ground. The mortgage should not have been delivered to the society until the defects in the house were remedied. She has a grievance and I think it is a real one.

What The Stars Are Doing

Warners have asked Fannie Hurst to write a sequel to "Four Daughters," which was based on her novel, "Sister Act." The three Lane sisters, Gale Page, Claude Rains, May Robson, Jeffrey Lynn, Dick Foran and Frank McHugh will all carry on their original characters in Come Home. John Garfield can't, for he dies in "Four Daughters."

Clark Gable is back from holiday to star in "The Great Canadian." M-G-M have bought another story for him called "Flight South." It's about game conservation under the auspices of G-men.

Barbara Read has grown up too fast to play her original part in the sequel to "Three Smart Girls." Helen Parrish takes her place in "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," with Deanna Durbin and Nan Grey as before.

Noah Beery is at present favourite candidate to succeed Warner Oland in the Charlie Chan series.

Latest story bought for Freddie Bartholomew is "When Men are Twelve."

Billie Burke will be the good witch in "The Wizard of Oz," and Gale Sondergaard the wicked witch.

Paramount are preparing "Woman Interme," probably for Claudette Colbert. She played a woman doctor before in "Private Worlds."

There is a suggestion that Douglas Fairbanks, Junior may inherit his father's old part in "The Man in the Iron Mask."

Zane Grey has been asked to write a story of the development of the Western Union telegraph service for filming.

Lulie Rainer is looking for a stage play to do on Broadway as soon as she finishes "Dramatic School."

Betty Finds Her Dog

Miss Betty Nuthall found her fine Chinese black chow dog Yami after 24 hours disappearance recently. He vanished over the top of a 400ft. cliff—but he was found in a summer-house in a garden in Erith Road, Torquay.

Coastguard William Pitman, who helped in the earlier searches, responded to another appeal by Miss Nuthall.

"Because of reports that the dog had been seen near there I went up Lincombe Drive," Pitman said "and in the public gardens I saw him among the shrubs. He would not let me touch him and snapped at me."

"He eluded me, but later I found him in Mr. Hill's summer house at Neville House. I shouted to Miss Nuthall and she and Miss Scott came along."

"Miss Nuthall was almost too excited to speak. 'Oh, Yami, I am so pleased to have you back. Wherever have you been?' she said, as she hugged him."

BOY'S RADIO SERENADE

Mary Vosper, 17, daughter of a Plymouth doctor, sat at home recently and tuned in on the family radio to the regional programme.

Dudley Savage, the boy organist, aged 19, was giving a recital on the B. B. C. theatre organ. Ever since he came to Mary's home four months ago to play on the organ owned by her father, she has listened intently to his broadcasts.

Savage had arranged a medley of love songs and dedicated the arrangement to Mary.

One of the numbers he played was "Her Name Is Mary," and, introducing the item, the announcer stressed, this point that her name IS Mary.

But Dudley was rather shy about his "air serenading." All he would say was: "We met through her parents, who are music lovers. Mary sent a telegram to Dudley congratulating him on his performance."

"She said: 'I must admit I was very surprised when the announcer said, 'Her Name IS Mary.'"

MARRIAGES AT REGISTRY

Two marriages were solemnised at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday.

The contracting parties were Mr. Leung Kwoon-san, salesman of the Sincere Co., Ltd., and Miss Tam Yuk-hing, and Mr. Loong Cheung-kin and Miss Tsui Yuk-ching.

Witnesses in the first ceremony were Messrs. Wong Wai-chi and Wong Man-yun, and in the second the fathers of the two parties.

BURIED TREASURE

On the Stock Exchange a fairy story is being told—and, like all fairy tales, it has a moral. Here it is:—

Dr. Schacht (President of Germany's Reichsbank) came over to London to try to raise a £50,000,000 loan. He saw our Montagu Norman.

"But what security can you offer?" Norman asked.

"Our mineral wealth below the ground. And, collaterally, our Fuehrer above our land," Schacht replied.

"Well," said Norman, "I might consider it... if the securities were reversed."

JURY'S VERDICT IN HILLSIDE TRAGEDY DEATH OF WOOD CUTTER

A verdict of accidental death, with no blame attached to anyone, was returned at an inquest held yesterday at the Central Court into the circumstances surrounding the death of a wood cutter, Lo Po, 33, Mr. T. J. Houston sat as Coroner, assisted by a jury comprising Messrs. Henry Ping-chung Poon (Foreman), Lok Tuk-kin and Lo Suen-wing.

Detective Lai Kwong said that he was on duty near the Aberdeen Industrial School on September 14 when he heard someone cutting trees. He went up the hillside and saw two persons sawing a tree. On seeing him approach the cutters disappeared. Witness did not give chase but went on a search for them. He found deceased lying half way down a steep slope and he complained of pain in the back.

Witness detailed his friend to look after deceased and he (witness) went back to the station to report and later returned with Sergeant Estall.

Deceased was taken to the Queen Mary Hospital.

Dr. Dean A. Smith, of the Queen Mary Hospital, said that the deceased was admitted to the hospital on September 16 suffering from paralysis in the leg as a result of fracture of the spine. Deceased passed away on November 6.

ROBBERY CHARGE

Further evidence was given yesterday in the case in which two unemployed men, Yiu Kim-kwong and Ho Ching-ling were charged before Mr. T. J. Houston at the Central Court, with robbery of 20 bags of wolfram ore, three baskets of eggs and three bags of duck feathers.

An additional charge of impersonating a police officer was brought against Yiu, while Ho was also accused of receiving stolen property.

Detective-Inspector W. N. Dinkin was in charge of the case. The hearing was further adjourned.

WOMAN CAUTIONED

A caution was administered against a married woman, Chan Hau-yin, when she appeared before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday charged with keeping an unregistered motor car.

Inspector H. W. Fraser, who prosecuted, said that the defendant came to the S.C.A. office and asked that the motor car be registered.

DRIVING CHARGE

Miss M. A. Whitham, residing at No. 10, Shek-O Bungalow, was fined $10 by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday when she pleaded guilty to the summons for driving a car at an excessive speed, 35 miles per hour, in Hennessy Road on November 21.

Cheung Lok, of Ho Tung Building, was robbed of $71.80 in money and clothing by someone who entered his room during his absence on Thursday.

Mr. Thynne, Assistant Manager of the China Fleet Club, also reported that some person broke the cash box in the Club telephone booth on Wednesday, and stole $10.

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

New President To Be Elected

At the annual joint meeting of the General and Executive Committees of the Society for the Protection of Children held on November 28, the Chairman announced that Sir Shouson Chow had expressed the desire to lay down the office of President which he had filled from the beginning of the Society's existence.

However, members were relieved to learn that his resignation by no means implied the severance of his connection with the Society nor any abatement of the untiring activity which had characterized the nine years of his term of office.

Sir Robert Kotewall would be invited to become President. The Chairman announced that the management of the Lien Yuet-Sien Croche (the gift of Mr. Li Po-chung) had been taken over by the officers of the Society as from November 15.

Mr. Tang Shiu-kin was thanked for a generous gift of furniture for the Society's new offices.

After discussion, the Committee approved the annual report and accounts as well as a list of officers to be submitted for the Society's adoption at its annual meeting to be held at the Helena May Institute on Tuesday, December 13, when His Excellency the Governor had intimated his intention of being present.

The annual meeting is open to the public.

HEAVY CHRISTMAS AIR MAIL

Due to the heavy Christmas air mail this year Imperial Airways' planes are doubling on their services.

During this month 35 trips by the flying boats of this line inward and outward bound, between Bangkok and England, will be made. Besides this particular type of craft there will be 38 trips by land planes of Imperial Airways forward and outward bound from Bangkok.

Added to these the Hongkong to Bangkok and return run will make 31 trips. This makes a total of 104 planes calling and passing through Bangkok.

Each craft of these three services for Imperial Airways will be carrying mail. On the Bangkok to Hongkong route, only post reservations will be allowed, due to lack of space. The south bound service will have no definite accommodation for passengers until after December 26.

MAGISTRATE'S HINT TO LANDLORDS

Appearing before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday charged with keeping a brothel at No. 2, Swatow Lane and with harbouring a 14-year-old girl without the permission of her guardian, Li Ngol, 34, widow, was remanded for 24 hours for further inquiries.

Inspector E. G. Post, of the S.C.A., replying to Mr. Forrest, said that the same premises had been raided four times this year, but he was unable to say whether action had been taken against the landlord.

Regarding action against landlords, Mr. Forrest remarked that no good could come no matter how severely people, such as defendant, were dealt with. It was obvious that they were paid to admit the offence. His intention in future was to see that, if the real keeper could not be found, the landlord should be held responsible for seeing that premises are not used for immoral purposes.

PEACE?—WHAT PEACE?

JAPAN is willing to make peace with Marshal Chiang Kai-shek! This somersault is surely the very height of Japanese absurdity. "China is not our enemy, only Chiang Kai-shek," never, never will we make peace with him. We will not stop until we have smashed him! For a year the Japanese have flooded the world with such extreme slogans. Now they are willing to make peace with Chiang Kai-shek, six weeks after these proud victors had demanded, some would say sued for, peace after the fall of Canton—on their own treacherous terms, which included his total elimination.

Why are they willing to treat with him now? That must be the Marshal's first reaction. Let us try to fathom his thoughts as he sits quietly in his study turning the situation over.

War, this war especially, is a horrible thing. On humanitarian grounds it should be brought to an end this very day. But at once two even more vital considerations arise. (1) Even if Japan offers to withdraw altogether from China, guaranteeing her sovereignty and territorial integrity, can Japan's word be trusted? (2) China, thanks to this war, is undergoing her social revolution, but the process has only just begun. Peace now would check it, for the heartless privileged classes are only now beginning to be squeezed out. The painful surgery must go on. Youth is only now beginning to rise, pure and patriotic. The New China of her salvation is not yet born, the fire has not yet purged enough of the country to throw up Youth rampant, intolerant of the money-hungry compradore ways of their elders.

Yet there is a still more important reason why peace is impossible to-day—the military situation. Japan's attack has passed its zenith, China's military strength is growing every day. Further, unity is still incomplete; only more hammering can bring it about. Fighting on is the Heaven-sent opportunity to bring lasting unity. Fighting on until every Japanese soldier is driven not only out of China but out of Manchuria. China must have victory, a painful victory, to give Youth the power to stop generals from scrambling for power and the rich from getting richer when the war is over.

This military victory is no phantasm. The best divisions have been kept behind re-arming and re-training for many months, while Japan's power of occupying cities and railways is coming to an end. That steady preparation behind the front can go on. In the meantime, in the Japanese rear, the guerrillas are being trained and armed to be effective.

Sitting in his tranquil study the Generalissimo sees a bright vision. Next year or the year after, a properly trained and equipped army of 3,000,000 will attack simultaneously from Shansi to Kwangsi, while 5,000,000 guerrillas disrupt the enemy's rear.

This is China's only hope of salvation—monstrous suffering to cleanse the body politic, monstrous sacrifices for an imperative victory. Tribulation must come before peace.

Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, above all men, knows how the Moral Law works in the destiny of nations.

ATLANTIC AIR LINE

News from New York City is that commercial flights across the Atlantic Ocean, under the American flag, will commence next April. Mr. William H. Coverdale, President of American Export Lines, Inc., announced this last month.

Mr. Coverdale said his Company will devote $450,000 of the proceeds of a new stock issue to the opening of the line, which will run from New York, Baltimore and Boston to Paris, via the Azores and Bordeaux, thence to Berlin, Rome, Athens and Alexandria.

Following experimental flights, carrying express and mail, the Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary, American Export Airlines, Inc., plans to invest an additional $8,000,000 to $7,000,000 to create a non-stop New York to Paris passenger service, he added.

CORRESPONDENCE

CHINESE WOMEN'S APPEAL

(To the Editor, "The Hongkong Daily Press")

Sir.—The Hongkong Chinese Women's Club wishes to appeal to the public for contributions of articles of Chinese manufacture for exhibition and sale at bazaars to be held in the near future in New York.

The proceeds realized from both bazaars will be devoted towards relief of distress in China.

As the conditions in China are now more acute, increasing the urgency for assistance, the Club earnestly hopes that the liberality of the public will once more be extended in the same unstinted manner as in the past.

Will all intending donors kindly send donations to this Club before December 8.

During the week, Mrs. Li Shu-fan, vice-president; Mrs. Li Shu-pui, chairman; Mrs. Violet Chan, vice-chairman; Mrs. Ho Sai-wah, general business committee; Mrs. Chan Fung-chau, transportation department; Mrs. Tang Chue, English secretary, and other members representing the Hongkong Chinese Women's Club, visited the various refugee centres established in the New Territories.

On behalf of the Club, a truckload of padded coats, flour, food, and milk was left at the Shatukok border for distribution to the needy. Padded coats, clothing, milk and medical supplies were given to St. John Ambulance Association for their maternity clinic at Fanling.

At Fanling, these ladies encountered a sad case of abandonment, doubtless by a poor distracted refugee mother, of a newly-born babe, found in the nearby scrub. On hearing the story, the baby was not long in finding a foster mother, and is now in the Yeung Wo Hospital undergoing treatment necessitated by exposure.

The Club dispatched to Canton by the Relief ship on November 23 4 cases new clothing and padded quilts; to Service Corps of The China Youth Relief Association, Medical supplies worth $200; to General Tam Kai-sau, 400 padded coats and medical supplies worth $200; to Service Corps of the Hongkong Students' Relief Association, 100 padded coats and medical supplies worth $200 and 1 motor cycle; to the Rhenish Missionary Society in Tung Kuo district, $300 for medical supplies.

Owing to the extended activities of the Club, it has been necessary to move into larger premises. Therefore, the Club Rooms will, as from December 8, be situated at No. 11 Queen's Road Central, second floor.

ANNE TANG CHUE,

English Secretary,
The Hongkong Chinese
Women's Club.

THE TIEN HSIA
MONTHLY

NOVEMBER ISSUE
REVIEWED

The materialist concept of the arts in China, as indicated by the inclusion of an article by Mr. Jack Chen, the Chinese cartoonist, serves to prove that there is a regeneration in thought being provoked by the hostilities caused by Japanese aggression.

The article is well thought out. It is clearly not the intention of the author to be anything more than an introduction to something further on which English-speaking students of Chinese culture will be able to base observations of its modernization.

A great service in this respect could be rendered by the editors of the "Tien Hsia Monthly" by the continued inclusion of material which could give a cross-cut of current Chinese arts. Such material is the short story "They Gather Heart Again," by Lao Sheh. This story, powerfully written, discloses the virile patriotism of the unorganized countryfolk of China.

ADMISSIBLE TRANSLATIONS. Two articles, "Jacob Epstein" and "Tribute to Blaise Cendrars," lift us out of China back into Hongkong or the International Settlement. The 40-page installment of "Four Seasons of Tang Poetry" by Dr. John C. H. Wu makes pleasant reading and gives one the opportunity to re-read the admirable translations of the Tang poetry by gifted sinologists like Waley and Giles.

"Tien Hsia Monthly" is edited by a conscientious group of young Chinese intellectuals that has already produced a master of literary form in a language which is not their mother tongue. And this in itself is a recommendation to its excellence.

The Wuhua Songsters will appear at the King's Theatre again on Sunday when they will present a repertoire of plays and songs.

MAJOR-GENERAL BARTHOLOMEW

Leaving For Home
Next Week

G.O.C. SINCE 1935

His Excellency Major-General A. W. Bartholomew, C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O., who also has been General Officer Commanding, the British Troops in China, since November, 1935, is relinquishing his command next week and will leave for England aboard the P. and O. Major-General Bartholomew's successor, Major-General A.E. Grasett, D.S.O., M.C., is due to arrive in the Colony next week.

The new General Officer Commanding, Major-General Grasett, prior to his appointment was Brigadier, General Staff, Northern Command, to which post he was moved last year from that of G.S.O.I. at the Staff College.

He was born in 1888 and was educated at Upper Canada College and at the Royal Military College of Canada at Kingston, Ontario. He is a graduate of the Staff College and of the Imperial Defence College.

FOREIGN
MARKET

Further Marking Up
Of Franc Rate

London, Dec. 2.
Soon after the market opened to-day, the franc rate was marked up to 178.15, compared to 178.18 overnight.

Before long the demand for francs in Paris developed into a crescendo, in face of which the French Exchange Fund had no alternative but to lower by successive stages the buying rate for sterling. In a couple of hours, "pet franc" had broken through from 178.0 to 188.87.

At the same time discounts on forward francs practically disappeared, and francs for delivery a fortnight hence commanded a small premium over spot.

The British authorities were early called on to support sterling against the dollar, although sales of dollars in connection with gold arbitrage purchases subsequently helped to alleviate the pressure on the pound.—Reuter.

JAPANESE FORCED

Konoye will shortly announce the end of the "China Incident." Chinese troops on the West River are taking all precautions. In fact, preparations are under way to stage an attack on the Japanese at Samshui before their reinforcements move into position.

On the northern front, it is reported that hundreds of Japanese were killed at Tai Ping Chang, south of Tsungshu, and that the Chinese counter-attack is gaining ground.

Guerrilla warfare in areas occupied by Japanese troops will shortly be revived under the command of General Yeh Ting, a former officer of the "Iron-sides" with Soviet training. He made an inspection of the occupied areas despite Japanese vigilance in order to secure first hand information and to plan for future action.

Overseas Chinese have promised financial assistance for the recovery of Canton. They are much depressed by recent events and felt bitter by the occupation of their homes by the Japanese. The majority of overseas Chinese are natives of Kwangtung and take a special concern over the welfare of their province.

Administrative and Kuomintang affairs in Kwangtung are now in better hands following the decision of the Central Authorities to appoint the Governor, General Wu Te-chen, as concurrently executive director of the Provincial Kuomintang. Thus he is in a better position to co-ordinate war time administration in this province.

JAPANESE WITHDRAWING
Yungyun, Kwangtung, Dec. 2.
More Japanese troops at Samshui and Salnam, on the West River, are reported to be withdrawing eastward for the defence of the Canton area.

Heavy casualties are said to have been suffered by the Japanese during fighting at Tai Ping Chang, south of Tsungshu, which is 35 miles northeast of Canton. Japanese reinforcements are continually arriving there from Tsungshu, 35 miles east of Canton on the north bank of the East River, to put up an effort to stem the Chinese advance.

Four hundred Japanese troops at Chunglokam, south of Tai Ping Chang, are being subjected to an enveloping attack by the Chinese.—Central News.

CHINESE COUNTER-
OFFENSIVE

Chungking, Dec. 2.
A telegram from Admiral Shen Hung-lich, Chairman of the Shantung Provincial Government, states that Chinese regular and guerrilla forces in Shantung are launching a general counter-offensive in Shantung with favourable results. Lintsing, important town in northwest Shantung, was recaptured last Tuesday when three Chinese columns smashed into the city and dispersed the Japanese.—Central News.

MINING MAGNATE IN COLONY

Don Andres Soriano
Returning To Manila

Don Andres Soriano, president of several leading mining companies in the Philippines, passed through the Colony yesterday morning in the Empress of Canada en route back to Manila, after an absence of eight months in Europe and the United States.

Among those interested in the conference were Mr. Li Tse-fong, of the Bank of East Asia, Mr. Lo Hung-nien, former Minister of Finance of China, Mr. Wang Ling-shih and a number of Chinese bankers.

CONFERS WITH INVESTORS
During his brief stay in port, Don Andres has been busy conferring with prominent European and Chinese investors of his several companies, and spoke of the possibilities of mining in the Philippines and its bright future. He said that in some cases mining was just as sound an investment as any conservative investor could ask for. When asked if he had considered extending his developments to China, Don Andres said he was waiting for the present conflict to end, before he could make a definite statement.

EVERY CHINESE CONVINCED OF VICTORY

Mrs. Haldane Relates Impressions Of Tour PRAISE FOR CHIANGS

London, December 2.

"I did not meet a single Chinese man or woman, old or young, who was not absolutely convinced that China must win the war in the end," said Mrs. Haldane, wife of Professor J. B. S. Haldane, in an interview with Reuters on her return to London yesterday from a six weeks intensive tour of China.

Mrs. Haldane said that the Japanese were intensely eager for peace, and kept making overtures to the Chinese Government through various foreign intermediaries. "After the fall of Canton they believed that China was finished, and made a positive peace offer, but it stipulated that Marshal Chiang Kai-shek must be expelled from the Government and that the Communists must be suppressed. This the Chinese rejected contemptuously."

Mrs. Haldane said the guerrilla organisation had been amazingly expanded, and in this connection the Communists were doing remarkable work. In addition to the Eighth Route Army, a New Fourth Route Army was recently created and had Nanchang as its base, but she understood that it had now been sent to Kwangtung to partake in operations around Canton.

In Hunan, Anhui and Shantung, there was an organisation of 600,000 volunteers, which had been built up and divided into groups of 20,000 to 30,000, mostly armed with hand grenades, which they made themselves, and with arms captured from Japanese convoys.

AID FOR SOLDIERS

Their operations were greatly assisted by the fact that every Chinese peasant, and even children, were ardently assisting them with food and information.

Mrs. Haldane drew a harrowing picture of the sufferings of the wounded and the pitiful inadequacy of medical equipment.

She said: "I visited a field hospital where rows of soldiers, mostly caked in mud from head to foot, and often hideously maimed, were lying on the floor, with only one doctor, who was working the clock round, present. It was impossible even to cope with half the cases."

"The Chinese capacity for uncomplainingly enduring pain is incredible, and even little girls bear their wounds and cuttings without a murmur."

Mrs. Haldane is now specially devoting herself to lectures and articles to stimulate British assistance for Chinese relief. She said: "One of the most conspicuous needs is tons and tons of iodine and other antiseptics."

GIRLS' HEROISM

Mrs. Haldane spoke with admiration of the Chinese girls who were now accepted on a footing of full equality with the men.

"I was specially impressed by their deep sense of personal responsibility to help the Chinese cause. At all the colleges they are training for war."

"Every girl is taught to use a rifle, but they are not actually fighting in the regular army, though I am told that many girls go out with the guerrillas. They are rather acting like the W.A.A.C.s. of the great war, writing letters for the soldiers and performing other services."

"One and all are imbued with a passion for learning always with an eye to the service of a better China which they are convinced will arise from the war."

CHIANG'S PERSONALITY

Like all who had interviewed the distinguished pair, Mrs. Haldane was deeply impressed with Marshal Chiang Kai-shek's powerful personality and serene confidence in the future, and with Madame Chiang's lambent patriotism.

"But they are only the embodiment in exultant of the spirit of determination which I found everywhere," concluded Mrs. Haldane.—Reuters.

MORAL REARMAMENT

London, Dec. 2. Dr. Logan H. Roots, Bishop of Hankow who recently returned from China, told the Royal Central Asian Society yesterday that there had been a wide response in certain quarters both in China and Japan to the call for moral rearmament.

"I have received almost simultaneously from General and Madame Chiang Kai-shek and Prince Komei telegrams endorsing the lead for moral rearmament that has come from leaders in Britain," said Dr. Roots.—Reuters.

London, Dec. 2. The Delhi correspondent of "The Times" says that travellers' reports from the Indian border countries indicate that in Lhasa close interest is being taken in the Sino-Japanese war, and throughout Tibet prayers are being offered for the success of the Chinese armies.—Reuters.

NEW RAIL LINK BETWEEN CHINA AND RUSSIA

Work Pushed On Vast Project

Shanghai Dec. 2.

Two new railway lines, by which it is intended to establish additional means of transportation between China and Soviet Russia, are in progress in China and Russia, according to reports received here.

The Chinese are working with all possible speed on a line from Paokai, on the western frontier of Shensi province, to Lanchow, capital of Kansu, while a large number of Russian workers are transforming a motor-highway into a railway territory controlled by the Japanese.

According to reports, long stretches of the Peiping-Hankow and Lunghai railways have been torn up and the railway transported to the new location.

Observers regard these railway construction projects as an indication that Marshal Chiang Kai-shek intends to organise continued opposition in north-western as well as south-western China, and is making preparations that will guarantee an adequate supply of provisions.—Transocean.

HOCKEY NOTES BY "QUIZ"

Radio Too Good For Police "B"

SIX-A-SIDE TOURNAMENT

On Sunday last Radio proved far too superior for Police "B" in an Association Tournament encounter. Though the former team won by 5-0, Awatar Singh, leader of the attack, could have doubled his count but for poor finishing and fumbling in the goalmouth, especially in the first half. In the Radio defence, M. H. Hassan, Mohinder Singh and Grogan were outstanding. However, the game was one sided and resulted in the Radio scoring an easy victory.

As they are used to sand Police "B" felt quite at home on their own ground. But the late arrival of one of their backs, Balbir Singh.

HOCKEY NOTES by "QUIZ" will appear weekly in the "DAILY PRESS" beginning next THURSDAY.

left Chanan Singh to play a lone hand in the defence. The latter player deserves all praise for bearing the brunt of the Radio attack. Jessop, the Police custodian, also magnificently defended between the sticks.

There was much comment some time ago regarding civilian hockey clubs for late arrivals at hockey matches. But this also concerns the Services. On Sunday last, R.A.F. failed to put in an appearance at the Club de Recreo ground in a friendly game against the K.I.T.C.

The K.I.T.C. instead played six-a-side among themselves and had a very fast game. In my opinion a Six-A-side Hockey Tournament is a move in the right direction and is likely to attract local enthusiasts. Though it will be a novelty here such tournaments are found in abundance in India and are a great success. I understand the Hockey Association is striving hard to sponsor this tournament at the close of the Hockey League.

I suggest that in the event of the Hockey Association sponsoring this tournament it should be held over two week-ends, the idea being that the majority of the players will have the opportunity of watching it both as participants and spectators. The tournament, run on the knockout system, is likely to be far more interesting.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

APOSTLE OF THE EAST DEATH OF CATHOLIC NOVELIST

To-day is the anniversary of the death of St. Francis Xavier on the island of Sancian, in Kwangtung. It is observed as a feast in his honour in the Catholic Church. Francis Xavier was one of the most remarkable men of a remarkable century, the sixteenth. He was a Spaniard who made his mark as a professor in the University of Paris, and a most ambitious man who was persuaded to forego ambition and devote himself to work for God with a group of men that all Paris thought to be fanatics. Ignatius Loyola was the man who influenced him and as one of his earliest companions he became one of the first Jesuits.

When he was sent as a missionary to the East his work was on an epic scale. In ten years he swept across the coast from the west of India to Japan, and all along the way converted groups that passed on his teaching to their children to the present day.

The progress which he was making in Japan would have satisfied anyone else—some whom he instructed transmitted the Faith without any guides or ministers of religion for many centuries—but to him it was painfully slow. He found that the Japanese would accept nothing that had not the hall-mark of excellence by being approved in China. Therefore he left Japan for China, with the plan of first converting China and then returning to convert Japan.

He died before his herculean task was even begun, for he got seriously ill on the ship and was left ashore on the coastal island of Sancian, where he died. His death occurred in 1552. Knowing all that he did it is hard to realize that he died at the age of forty-six.

CATHEDRAL OF MILAN

To altar the appearance of the Cathedral of Milan is to change one of the most familiar landmarks in the world. Yet within the next four years we are assured that it will be changed by the addition of the tallest campanile in the world, 540 ft. Like the Cathedral itself it will be built of white marble, with a slightly pink tinge, from the quarries above Lake Maggiore, and it will be in Gothic style to match the Cathedral. It will stand apart from the Cathedral building itself, as in the case of many Italian cathedrals and of some others such as Winchester Cathedral or the Catholic Cathedral in Hongkong.

In front of the Cathedral there is a huge square, which provides a perfect view of the front of the building. This will give a setting for the campanile such as few other great towers have in any other part of the world. The facade of the cathedral is the least remarkable part of it, and it is a comparatively recent addition. A few years ago a competition was held in the hope of getting a better design, but it failed. Now architects believe that the new campanile will give the building the dignity which is lacking in its front.

DEATH OF CATHOLIC NOVELIST

Though many other besides Catholics are familiar with "Beardless Counsellors" and "Adventure of an Amethyst," it was as a Catholic writer that Miss Cecily Hallack will be remembered. She died at the end of October. Exactly half of her forty years were spent as a Catholic. She was a clergyman's daughter and found her own into the Catholic Church. From the time of her conversion her religious faith was without any doubt the biggest thing in her life.

She was a particularly gifted writer, but she devoted herself almost entirely to writing with a distinctly religious flavour, and though this kind of writing may win much praise, as hers did, it does not earn much money. She had to support herself by her pen and often it was very difficult, yet she was never known to anyone but as gay and debonair. She was tall and handsome and wore clothes so well and gave help to others so freely that many who knew her for many years believed her to be wealthy. In reality she was poor, for her fees came irregularly and she gave away everything as soon as it came into her hands. It was only after her death that people discovered how much good she did and of how much she deprived herself in doing it.

As a writer for children her work had traits of genius and her knowledge of flower and bird love was inexhaustible. She left many friends and it is said that never by what she wrote or by what she did or said, did she ever show any unkind feeling or cause any pain.

LIE DETECTOR

Another Catholic who died recently was Fr. Walter Summers, S. J. of Fordham University, New York. The inventor of the famous "lie detector"—technically called a recording psychogalvanometer.

It was before the American Psychological Association that he first described the remarkable instrument. On that occasion he told of long tests that had been made covering experiments with fifty groups of students, which showed only two per cent of error. Fr. Summers intended the instrument to serve a wide field in exploring the emotional responses of human beings to various stimuli, but its possible help in discovering possible criminals surpassed any other value.

It was first used in a public court two years ago, when it was applied to six men. They became so frightened that they forthwith confessed. For some time after this it was only for its psychological effect in this way that it was used in the courts, but eventually it was accepted on its face value. About six months ago, in a New York criminal court, it played a vital part in the acquittal of a suspected robber.

The principle of the instrument is not based on variations of blood-pressure as are most of the other instruments devised for a similar purpose, but on small electrical changes in the body.

The new tower will have at its summit a revolving light, called the Lighthouse of Peace.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hongkong

Subject:—God the only Cause and Creator.

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches, to-morrow December 4 will be "God the only Cause and Creator."

The Golden Text will be:—"I am the Lord, your Holy one, the creator of Israel, your King." (Isaiah 43:15).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible: "I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker. Behold, God exalteth by his power; who teacheth like him? Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity? Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold. Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? Who hath gathered the winds in his fists? Who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name. If thou canst tell? Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. (Job 36:22-24. Proverbs 30:4, 5).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"Human thought never projected the least portion of true being. Human belief has sought and interpreted in its own way the echo of Spirit, and so seems to have reversed it and repeated it materially; but the human mind never produced a real tone nor sent forth a positive sound. Cause does not exist in matter, in mortal mind, or in physical forms. The fading forms of matter, the mortal body and material earth, are the fleeting concepts of the human mind. (pages 126, 262, 263).

SIR C. BRESSEY TO RETIRE

Produced 30-Year Road Plan

Sir Charles Bresssey, who in May, as engineer-in-charge of the Highways Development Survey of Greater London, produced with Sir Edwin Lutyens, R.A., a plan for the reconstruction of London's roadways over a period of 30 years, is to retire.

Speaking at a meeting of the London Society in the hall of the Royal Society of Arts recently, Sir Charles said that he would retire "at Christmas."

Sir Charles was appointed in 1934, by Mr. Hore-Bellish, the then Minister of Transport, to report on the possible reorganisation of London's road system.

The report which he produced in May ran to 40,000 words. In it he recommended new routes with a total length of 818 miles and including many "parkways," viaducts and road tunnels.

The report was described by Mr. L. Burgin, the Minister of Transport, as a "monumental achievement."

PLAN DEFENDED

In his speech recently Sir Charles defended his plan against critics. They must, he said, move with the times.

If these schemes were to be whittled down on the ground that a thing had not been done before in London, though it might have been done in Copenhagen, New York, Paris, or elsewhere, and London must keep in the old way and have no tunnels or viaducts, then he was afraid that London would fall very far behind in the race.

He never returned to London from capitals such as Rome and Paris without a definite misgiving about London. Were they right to be so complacent about the city and to assume that it could not be improved?

Sir Gwilym Gibbon, formerly Permanent Secretary for Town Planning at the Ministry of Health, declared that as a place to transact business London was a lamentably defective piece of planning.

NEW ZEALAND FINANCES

The New Zealand public accounts figures, just published, show that in the six months ended Sept. 30 revenue was slightly smaller and expenditure greater than during the same period last year.

Revenue was £13,400,000, compared with £13,584,000 last year, and expenditure was £15,902,000, compared with £15,008,000.

The Finance Minister, Mr. Nash, commenting on the figures, said that, reviewing the position as a whole, it was evident revenue and expenditure were adhering closely to the estimates. He was confident that the year would close with the country's finances maintained in a healthy state.

BANQUET IN HONOUR OF INSECTS

It is not because they are glad that mosquitoes exist that eminent representatives of science, commerce and industry take part in a banquet every year, held in London on May 13. On the contrary, it is to honour the memory of two scientists who were the sworn enemies of mosquitoes, Sir Ronald Ross and Sir Patrick Manson, that this banquet is held.

HOTEL INDUSTRY NEEDS PEACE

Lord Bliff, the principal guest at the banquet of the International Hotel Alliance at Glasgow recently, said "Peace is essential to the prosperity of the hotel industry."

"There is one good thing which emerged from the recent crisis—it has been made clear that all the inhabitants of the countries of Europe affected urgently desire peace. Some of those countries are spending money on rearmament in the belief that the policy will ensure peace. I suppose if one country arms the others must do so, to avoid being at a disadvantage."

"How very much better it would be if we could come to an understanding to spend this money in visiting our neighbours and staying in each other's hotels."

The merchants in Macao have sent a petition to the Governor, through the Chairman of the Macao Chinese Chamber of Commerce Mr. Hsu Wei-ching, asking for modifications on the prohibition of exports of food supplies and the fixing of food prices. The authorities are giving the matter consideration.

After a five-hour conference in London a settlement was reached on wages and conditions between representatives of employers and employed in the retail footwear trade.

HOTEL INDUSTRY NEEDS PEACE

During the last years of his life, Sir Ronald Ross gave a lunch each year on August 20 to celebrate the fact that he discovered the malaria parasite on that day in 1897. He called that day "Mosquito Day."

But as August 20 comes in the middle of the holiday season, the Managing Committee decided later to hold the traditional banquet on May 13, this being Sir Ronald Ross's birthday.

Every year numerous speeches are made at this lunch; those present recall with gratitude the blessings that these two scientists have secured for humanity. The losses caused by malaria, both in human life and money, were enormous. Did not Sir David Adams state quite recently that the monetary loss caused by malaria in British India alone, varied between 20 and 50 millions sterling per year?

CURATIVE REMEDY

Thanks to the discovery of the malaria parasite and to all the consequences that have followed, means have been found for dealing with this malady, and at present quinine is considered as the preventive and curative remedy for malaria.

The League of Nations Commission, specially formed for examining questions concerning malaria recommends as a preventive measure a daily dose of six grains of quinine throughout the entire fever season, whilst for treatment 15 grains to 20 grains of quinine during five to seven days is quite sufficient.

RACE FOR ILLINGWORTH CUP STARTS TO-DAY

Sailing Course Exceeds Fifty Miles In Length

(By "JACKSTAFF")

The annual race for the "Illingworth" Cup is set for to-day and it is anticipated that the following will be at the Starting Line at 6 p.m.:—

Norena, La Cigale, Wanderer, U. and I. (under her new owner, John Collis), Punal, Tyrone, Sailing, Cutty, Curlew, Typhoon, "Marander, Yanthey, Tai Wan Shan, Highwayman, and Azuma, the last hoping to retain the trophy which she won last year.

The race owes its inception to the enthusiasm of Comdr. (E) Illingworth, R. N., who was on the China Station in 1929 and raced "Queen Bee" very keenly to win the Cruiser Championship in that year. He considered that the Cruiser racing was restricted too much to confined waters and to encourage competition in open waters donated the trophy to be competed for annually over a course which must exceed 50 miles in length and which must be sailed in part during the hours of darkness.

The courses that have been set so far have been varied, taking competitors in different years to Single Island in the North, to Lung Ting in the South and Tong Ku in the West, whilst that laid out for to-day calls for Cheung Chau to be left to Port, Ling Ting to Port, Waglan to Port and then Hongkong to Starboard—a distance of 54 miles.

"LONG LEG". With such a course it may well happen that a competitor might make his "long leg" from Ling Ting towards Waglan almost as far as the Lemmas before "looking up for the latter" and whilst this would give him some shelter in an easterly wind he won't be able to avoid a bit of a wetting when he comes clear of them.

The Illingworth Cup race is generally looked upon as a "tuning up" event for the Macao Race which is sailed on Boxing Bay starting at 7.30 in the morning and with the latest additions to the fleet namely Mr. Berg's "Marander," Capt. Dibley's (R. N.) "Yanthey" and Mr. Landale's "Highwayman," Major Dobb's "Tai Wan Shan," Capt. Bateman's "Red Rover" and Doctor Pringle's "Punal" a record fleet is expected but there is some doubt as to whether Mr. Croucher's new "La Cigale II," Mr. Rouse's "Golden Dragon" and the Club Commodore's (Mr. E. Cock) "Dorinda" will be ready.

KEEN COMPETITION Competition between "La Cigale II" which is to the New York Yacht Club's famous 32 foot water-line class and "Golden Dragon," which is being built with a view to competing in the 600 mile Fuznet race next year, is expected to be very keen, much friendly rivalry existing between the two owners.

To forecast the winner of the "Illingworth" Cup is not easy but in lightish going "Norena"—who is scratch boat—should not be far away, whilst in moderate winds and sea the four tonners "Sai Long" and "Cutty" will be there or thereabouts; however, with the club's system of "Time on Time" handicapping all can be in the picture unless they make a bad break in "navigating" or perhaps more properly "piloting."

But personally I think the winner will probably be found among Norena, Azuma, Yanthey with "U. and I," "Marander" and "Salons" likely to upset the apple-cart and perhaps my guess may prove as good as the next fellows!

SOFTBALL NOTES

The American touring squad in their recent exhibition games.

The Recreio Ladies, having to their credit a previous victory over their opponents, should just about take the honours from the Filipino Girls, but whatever the result an excellent game should be seen.

Two further ladies' matches will take place at 11.15 a.m., when the Chinese Wildcats should register an easy win in their clash with the Pirates, on the Filipino Club ground. The Central British Ladies will be at home against the Cardinals in what should prove to be a very even tussle.

MEASURES The men's games will start 30 minutes later than usual, on the U.S.A. ground, and the first clash between the 3d. Mainline (Gun Coy. and the Club de Recreio will commence at 1 p.m.

The Gunners, having sustained only one defeat this season, are in third place in the league standings, but are not expected to head the more experienced Recreio boys who are lower down in the list.

The second game will see the Chinese Baseballers in action against St. Joseph's, who recently scored a surprise victory over the Canadian Chinese. The Chinese Baseballers, most of whom were members of the local squad that accounted for Columbia Pictures on Wednesday, should experience no trouble whatsoever with the students, but would do well to avoid that old pitfall, over-confidence.

In the ultimate match of the day, the Filipino Club are slated to meet the Canadian Chinese, and with spark-plug Paulino back in the line-up, should have little difficulty with the opposition. The Canadians whose recent displays have been exceedingly disappointing, are however capable of playing excellent ball at times, and there's no telling what can happen in a ball game.

ABOUT THE RULES Judging from the play of our recent American visitors, the rules of the game have been interpreted much too strictly by local umpires. It must be understood however that Fiedler's girls have been taught to play for the benefit of cash customers and not primarily for their own enjoyment.

The game as played locally has not been difficult, and I believe, any relaxation of the pitching rule would tend to give the baseballers a much greater advantage than the one which they now enjoy, over the newcomers to softball.

The local authorities would do well to consider long and earnestly before they decide whether or not the book of rules should be scrapped.
